[JANUARY, MDCCLXVII.] THE [NUMB. 59.]

SOUTH-CAROLINA AND COUNTRY GAZETTE; JOURNAL.

Containing the freſheſt Advices, both Foreign and Domeſtic.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 27, 1767.

From the LONDON GAZETTE.

CORUNNA, October 4.

ON the 23d of laſt month arrived at Ferrol from Buenos Ayres, in 82 days, a Spaniſh man of war called the Magnanime, and brings 1,556,000 Rix-dollars, beſides other merchandize.

St. James's, Nov. 15. This day commiſſions paſſed under the great ſeal for trial of the offenders in cuſtody in the counties of Norfolk, Glouceſter, Berkſhire, and Wiltſhire, and the cities of Norwich and Glouceſter, on account of the late inſurrections and outrages in thoſe parts; and the judges appointed to execute ſuch commiſſions, will open the ſame very early in the next month.

Whitehall, Nov. 15. The King has been pleaſed to order letters patent to be paſſed under the great ſeal of the kingdom of Ireland, containing a grant unto the moſt Honourable James Marquis of Kildare, and the heirs male of his body lawfully begotten, of the dignity of a Duke of the ſaid Kingdom, by the name, ſtile and title of Duke of Leinſter.

Conſtantinople, Oct. 1. The ſhocks of the earth have, within about a fortnight paſt, happened but ſeldom and ſlight, except one which was very ſenſibly felt on the 24th ult. about ten at night; but no damage was done.

The Grand Signior has recalled from Lemnos, the Grecian Prince Stephanitza, who has been in baniſhment there ſome time; and it is thought he will be made Hoſpodar of Valachia.

They write from Manachia, otherwiſe called Magneſia, an ancient town in Aſiatick Turky in Natolia, that Sore-Muſtapha-Pacha, at the head of a body of troops, has defeated the Aga Cara-Oſman-Oglu, a declared rebel to the Sublime Porte; but it is not known where he is retreated to.

Rome, Oct. 22. The Prince of Mecklenbourg, one of the younger Brothers of the Queen of England, ſet out from hence this morning for Naples.

Stockholm, Oct. 24. We hear that the Count de Bohlen, late Envoy Extraordinary from Sweden at the Court of Berlin, from whence he was recalled, has entered into the King of Pruſſia's ſervice with the rank of Colonel.

Copenhagen, Oct. 29. Mr. Gunning, the new Envoy Extraordinary from the Court of Great-Britain, had an audience of the King the 24th inſtant, when he delivered his credential letters to his Majeſty.

Vienna, Oct. 29. By order of the Empreſs Queen, the edict which was publiſhed ſome years ago, is renewed; by which her Majeſty's ſubjects are prohibited entering into the ſervice of any foreign powers without permiſſion, and thoſe who act contrary to this edict, will for the future be conſidered and puniſhed as deſerters.

Hanover, Oct. 31. General Baron de Walnoden Envoy Extraordinary for the affairs of this electorate at Vienna, ſat out for that court the day before yeſterday.

Copenhagen, Nov. 4. Her Daniſh Majeſty came to Roeſkild on Sunday evening the 2d inſtant, where the King met her the next morning, and, after a few hours ſtay, took her Majeſty along with him in his own coach, and brought her to Friderickſberg about 4 in the afternoon. In that palace her Majeſty repoſes herſelf till Saturday the 8th inſtant, which is the day appointed for her public entry into this city, and for the final celebration of the royal nuptials.

Paris, Oct. 27. The Modeſte frigate, of 24 guns and 70 men, including paſſengers, bound from Marſeilles to Cape Francois, was ſet on fire and deſtroyed by lightning the 19th of September laſt. The captain and 54 other perſons got on board part of the floating wreck, and continued in that dreadful ſituation four days, till the 23d of September, when thoſe who remained alive were happily taken up and relieved by the William and Johanna ſnow, an Engliſh veſſel, commanded by Capt. Thomas Hubbert, who arrived at Merſailles the 30th of September, with 18 of theſe unhappy people, the other 17 having periſhed on the raft with cold, hunger, and fatigue. Capt. Gayer, the commander of the Modeſte is very ill, but they are in hopes of his recovery. A letter from Genoa brings advice, that a Dutch ſhip arrived at that port has brought thither eleven perſons belonging to the Modeſte, which ſhe took up at ſea.

LONDON, November 12.

Extract of a Letter from Amſterdam, dated November 7.

"Nothing new happens in this quarter, trade being at a low ebb, only one lucrative branch remains —Bankrupcy— it is not yet univerſally followed, but has turned ſo much to the profit and honour of ſome who have engaged in it, that unleſs our Magiſtrates ſhould by weak and ill-adviſers throw obſtacles in the way, it is not to be doubted but it will in a ſhort time grow more general, redound to the advantage and reputation of this country, and reſtore it to its antient ſplendour."

NOVEMBER 13. On Tueſday and yeſterday the following writs were iſſued out for electing members in the room of others dead or promoted during the receſs of Parliament, viz. A new writ for the ſhire of Roſs, in the room of the Hon. James Stuart Mackenzie, appointed keeper of the Privy Seal for Scotland.——A new writ for Banbury, in the room of Lord North, and alſo a new writ for the county of Middleſex, in the room of George Cooke, Eſq; appointed joint pay-maſter of his Majeſty's land forces.——A new writ for Argyleſhire, in the room of Lord William Campbell, appointed Governor of Nova-Scotia.——A new writ for Newport, in the Iſle of Wight, in the room of William de Grey, Eſq; appointed his Majeſty's Attorney-General.——A new writ for Barnſtable, in the county of Devon, in the room of Sir George Amyand, deceaſed——A new writ for Scarborough in the county of York, in the room of William Oſbaldiſton, Eſq; deceaſed.——A new writ for Honiton in the county of Devon, in the room of Sir George Yonge; and alſo a new writ for Eaſtloe in the county of Cornwall, in the room of Lord Viſcount Palmerſton, appointed Lords of the Admiralty.——A new writ for Wycombe in the county of Bucks; and alſo a new writ for the town of Buckingham, in the room of Iſaac Barre and Jamas Grenville, Eſqrs. appointed joint Vice-Treaſurers of Ireland.——A new writ for Chriſt-church in the county of Hants, in the room of Thomas Robinſon, Eſq; appointed one of the Lords of Trade.——A new writ for Hythe, in the county of Kent, in the room of William Glanville, Eſq; deceaſed.——A new writ for the city of Bath, in the room of the Right Hon. William Pitt, Eſq; created a Peer.——A new writ for the city of Coventry, in the room of James Hewitt, Eſq; appointed one of the Judges of the King's Bench.——A new writ for Harwich, in the room of the Right Hon. Charles Townſend, Eſq; appointed Chancellor of the Exchequer.——A new writ for Penryn, in the county of Cornwall, in the room of Sir Edward Turner, Bart. deceas'd.——A new writ for the ſhire of Nairn and Cromarty, in the room of Pryſe Campbell, Eſq; appointed one of the Lords of the Treaſury.

Extract of a Letter from Portſmouth, November 8.

"At eight o'clock this morning a ſignal was made, on board the Dorſetſhire guardſhip, for a court-martial, to try Capt. Hugh Bromedge, commander of his Majeſty's late ſloop Happy, Mr. Samuel Fiſh, Maſter, and Mr. Robert Fife, the Pilot, for running the ſaid ſloop on ſhore on Wintertoneneſs-beach, near the Lights, the 13th of September laſt, where ſhe was wrecked: The ſaid ſloop, between one and two o'clock the ſame afternoon, in turning from the Northward, thro' the Cockle for Yarmouth Roads, with the wind at W. S. W. and blowing a freſh gale, in company with ſeveral other ſhips, miſſed ſtays, being ketch rigged, and in wearing ſhe ſtruck on the Scroby-ſand: It being flowing water, it was adviſeable to force her over the ſand, which was done; after getting her afloat ſhe made ſo much water, though both pumping and bailing for life, that, for the preſervation of the mens lives, ſhip and ſtores, they were oblig'd to run her on the Main. It being clearly proved to the ſatisfaction of the whole Court, that there was no fault or neglect in Capt. Bromedge, the Maſter, Pilot, Officers, or people, but the accident was owing intirely to her miſſing ſtays; therefore honourably acquitted Captain Hugh Bromedge, Mr. Samuel Fiſh, and Mr. Robert Fife, the Pilot, Officers, and People."

NOVEMBER 14. By yeſterday's mail from France we have an account from Apernay, in Champagne, that on the 31ſt ult. (their great Market-day) a Wolf came into that town at ſix in the morning, and ſeized a girl with a lanthorn in her hand, and after taking out one of her eyes attacked another perſon with ſtill more fury.——The daughter of the latter running to aſſiſt her father, was wounded in ſeveral parts. A ſawyer, who came up on hearing the ſhrieks of thoſe unfortunate people, was thrown down, but had ſtrength enough to hold the animal by the ears till his comrade joined him. The latter, though unarmed, ſeized the Wolf by the throat, and holding his two paws in one hand at the ſame time that he preſſed his ſides with his knees, drew a knife and endeavoured to ſtab him, but the blead was too weak. He called out to his wife for a ſtronger knife, but ſhe brought him one little better than the firſt, ſo that he was obliged to wait till a third could be procured, with which this brave fellow pierced the heart of the annimal, and received no hurt himſelf. The Intendant of the province, who happened to be in the town at the time, handſomely rewarded him for his courage, and ordered the wounded people to be taken proper care of.

NOVEMBER 15. We can aſſure the Publick, that a Medal of Lord Camden, deſigned by James Stuart, Eſq; is engraving by Mr. Pingo, of Gray's Inn Lane, from a model after the life, is in great forwardneſs, and will be publiſhed with all expedition.

Extract of a Letter from Berlin, October 20.

"The advices from Peterſbourg alarm us. The French partiſans boldly aſſert, that they have got the monopoly of all the Saltpetre of the Ruſſian Empire that is permitted to be exported. We can hardly believe this to be true, and rather take it for a brag of a lively French undertaker, it would be too ſtrong a meaſure for a Miniſter, even in Ruſſia, for to hinder the people from ſelling their produce to thoſe who give moſt. And our Monarch, who feels the neceſſity of having more than this country can produce, would give more than a market price for that material, upon which not only our independency but that of all Europe depends."

NOVEMBER 21. We are informed that his Serene Highneſs the Reigning Duke of Mecklenburgh Strelitz, is ſhortly expected here, on a viſit to his Royal Daughter, our moſt gracious Queen.

They write from Gibralter, that circular letters had been received both there and at all the principal ports in the Mediterranean, inviting foreigners to carry on a trade with the inhabitants of Corſica.

According to advices from Leghorn, it was ſaid, the Venetians had entered into contract for building ſeveral ſhips of war for the ſervice of a neighbouring kingdom.

According to recent advices from Leghorn, the Corſican fleet was ſaid to conſiſt of 32 armed veſſels, the leaſt of which were capable of mounting ten carriage guns.

NOVEMBER 24. According to private letters from Paris, a treaty has for ſome time paſt been on the carpet, for ceding to a certain prince on the continent, the French ſettlement and colony of Cayenne in America.

We are informed that application is intended to be made to parliament, for a new regulation in the high rates of ſalvage, at preſent demanded by pilots and others, on ſhipping and merchandize, wrecked on the coaſt of Great-Britain.

NOVEMBER 25. It is ſaid a foreigner, now in town, has offered to introduce the true method of making ſaltpetre in the Britiſh American colonies on proper encouragement, and that his propoſal has been accepted of.

According to private letters from Peterſburgh, we learn, that the Marquis de Bauſſet, the French Miniſter, had concluded an important treaty with the Ruſſian Court, but of what nature is not mentioned.

NOVEMBER 26. We hear that a negotiation of great importance is juſt concluded between the Courts of London and Berlin.

Monday a box containing ſome hundred weight of halfpence, fell out of the ſlings into the river, while hoiſting on board a ſhip off the Tower, bound to North-America.

It is ſaid, that orders are ſent to Deptford, for building ſome light ſhips of war, to be ſent immediately to join Commodore Graves's ſquadron on the African ſtation.

NOVEMBER 27. On Tueſday night ſome diſpatches were ſent away to the Earl of Rochford, his Majeſty's Ambaſſador at the court of France, which are ſaid to be of importance.

NEW-YORK, DECEMBER 24.

To his Excellency Sir HENRY MOORE, Bart. Captain-General and Governor in Chief, in and over the Colony of New-York, and the Territories depending thereon in America, Chancellor and Vice-Admiral of the same.

The humble ADDRESS of the General Assembly of the said Colony.

May it please your Excellency,

WE, his Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the General Assembly of the colony of New-York, have taken your Excellency's message of the 17th of November last, into our most serious consideration; and beg leave to assure your Excellency, that nothing would give us greater pleasure than to find it in our power to comply with what is now demanded, consistent with our obligation to our constituents. We shall always be ready to give the amplest testimonies of our loyalty to his Majesty, and submission to his government, from which, we humbly conceive, we do not deviate, when we shew a regard to the interests of his faithful subjects in this colony, absolutely necessary to their preservation.

We hope it will be considered that we are chosen to make such a provision for the support of his Majesty's government in this colony (as well as for other important purposes) as is most suitable to the circumstances of the people we represent; and that we should be guilty of a breach of that most sacred trust, if we should load them with burthens they are incapable of supporting.

In the provision we made last session, for quartering two battalions and one company of artillery, we loaded ourselves with a burthen much greater than any of the neighbouring governments lie under for that service; and imagined, that far from being censured on that account, it would be accepted as a new instance of that loyalty and affection to his Majesty's government, of which this colony has exhibited so many proofs.

We beg leave, further to represent to your Excellency, that by the act of parliament, it appears to be the intention of the legislature, to provide for the quartering soldiers only on a march; but according to the construction put on it here, it is required that all the forces which shall at any time enter this colony, shall be quartered during the whole year, in a very unusual and expensive manner: That by marching several regiments into this Colony, this expence would become ruinous and insupportable; And therefore we cannot consistent with our duty to our constituents, put it in the power of any person (whatsoever confidence we may have in his prudence and integrity) to lay such a burthen on them.

We should be very sorry to differ with your Excellency on this or any other political subject; and therefore it is proper to offer those matters to your consideration, in hopes that they will be sufficient to demonstrate that the objections against making the provision required, are of a nature the most serious and weighty imaginable; And therefore we humbly intreat your Excellency, to set our conduct in the most favourable, that is, in its true light, by representing that our non-compliance on this occasion, proceeds entirely from a just sense of what our duty requires.

Assembly Chamber, the 15th December 1766. By order of the General Assembly,

W. NICOLL, Speaker.

To which his Excellency was pleased to return the following

ANSWER.

Gentlemen of the General Assembly,

IT is with no small concern that I find the sentiments of this house differing so much from mine, in regard to the subject matter of the address now presented to me; which shall, by the first opportunity, be transmitted to the secretary of state, in order to be laid before his Majesty.

PORTSMOUTH, (in NEW-HAMPSHIRE) Dec. 29.

Last Saturday evening, about 40 minutes after six, being a very clear night, a considerable shock of an Earthquake was felt in this and several of the neighbouring towns, attended with a loud rumbling noise; but happily has done no damage.

NEWPORT, (in Rhode-Island) Dec. 29.

We hear that wheat and flour have been brought to market so plentifully in Philadelphia, New-Jersey, and New-York, that the price has fell considerably in those places.

Jan. 5. Joseph Andrews, taken up at Boston, has since his being committed to Gaol cut his Throat; but proper Care being taken of the Wound, we hear he is like to recover.

We hear, by a Gentleman from Boston, that the Weather there, last Week, was so extreme cold that the Harbour, down as far as the Castle, was entirely froze: That the Mercury, by Fahrenheit's Thermometer, descended to 21 Degrees below 0, which was 8 Degrees colder than in this Town: But that the Quantity of Snow is not so considerable there as it is here.

CHARLES-TOWN, JANUARY 27.

ON Tuesday the 13th Instant, being the Day appointed for the Anniversary Meeting of the Charles-Town Library Society, his Excellency the Right Honourable Lord CHARLES-GREVILLE MONTAGU, Governor, &c. of this Province, was elected President for the ensuing Year, and Henry Laurens, Esq; Vice-President; Mr. Robert Philp, Treasurer; Mr. William Mason, Secretary and Correspondent; Thomas Evance, Esq; Steward; Mr. William Carwithen, Librarian; and Mr. Fletcher, of London, Bookseller, were re-elected. The Thanks of the Society were unanimously voted, to his Honour the Lieutenant-Governor, late President, and Gabriel Manigault, Esq; late Vice-President, for the many Services they had rendered thereto.

On Thursday the 15th Instant, put into this Port, in Distress, the Schooner Gull, Charles Boult, Master, from Anguilla, bound for Boston.

Extract of a Letter from St. Christophers, dated 8th of January, 1767.

"At Nine o'Clock in the Night of the 27th December, a terrible Fire broke out in Bridge-Town, Barbados, at the Store of Paul Bedford, and Co. above the Stepping-Stones; which consumed every House on both Sides of the Street, quite down to Tom Thompson's Tavern, taking in every House and Store on the Right-Hand Side of the Green, to Worrell & Walke's; whose Yard having a great Quantity of Lumber in it, carried the Flames to Mr. Stevenson's, and he having a vast Number of Casks, as well as a large Parcel of Boards and other Timber, set fire to the Range of Houses leading from the Old-Bridge into Town.——The House inhabited by Irenæus Moe, Esq; was laid in Ashes at Five the next Morning.—Mrs. Wayle's House was blown up at Three in the Morning of the 28th, which was the Means of saving High-Street.—Had Mr. John Hall's House taken fire, which was momently expected, the small Fragment of the Town left, of the Ravage of the May Flames, must have been entirely consumed.——I was lucky enough to have no House burnt, yet in the End must suffer; as our Connections lay in such a Manner, that the Distresses of the Unfortunate will affect all in Trade."

By Captain Mulford, from Wilmington, in North-Carolina, bound for East-Florida, with a Number of Passengers on board, and who put in here on Friday Evening last, we are informed, That a Brig, commanded by one Talbert, bound from Philadelphia for Cape-Fear, was cast-away on Cape-Look-Out Shoals, about three Weeks since; the People's Lives were saved, but the Vessel and Cargo entirely lost.—And about the same Time, Captain Andrew Ashmore, in a Sloop, bound from Philadelphia for Maryland, but blown off, was also cast-away about 30 Miles to the Northward of Cape-Look-Out; the People, and some Part of her Cargo, were saved.

In the Ship Minerva, Capt. Barnes, from London, came 29 Passengers, going from hence to East-Florida, amongst them Captain Woolridge with his Family, who, we hear, is appointed Provost-Marshal of that Province.

The Brig Diana, Isaac Cheesman, Master, from London, arrived at Savannah in Georgia, 18 Days ago, and brought over Miss Nancy Wright, eldest Daughter of his Excellency Governor Wright.

About the same Time arrived off St. Augustine, a Brig from England, with Denys Rolle, Esq; (Member of Parliament) and more new Settlers on board for East-Florida.

The Snow Swift, John Thompson, from Poole; the Ship Hope, John Davies, from Cowes; and the Sloop Phœbe, John Shepherd, from Jamaica, are arrived at Beaufort, Port-Royal.—The Schooner Susannah, Amos Tryon, from Jamaica; and the Sloop Revenge, —— Dagget, from Rhode-Island, at George-Town, Winyah.

Sunday last arrived from a Cruize, his Majesty's Sloop Sardoine, Captain Hawker.

DIED.] At Sea, on his Passage from Savannah to this Port, Mr. William Trewin, of Augusta, Merchant.

 The Public are cautioned to beware of Counterfeit TWENTY and TEN SHILLING Bills, of the lawful Money of this Province, which are now circulating: They are intended to resemble those dated the 25th Day of July, 1761, which were signed J. Motte, jun. J. Rutledge, John Savage, Tho. Smith.

OSBORNE STRATON,

EQUALLY attentive to the Health and Welfare of all his Pupils, has, with the Consent and Approbation of the SOUTH-CAROLINA SOCIETY, engaged a commodious Room for his SCHOOL, at Mr. WISHE's, on the Green;—this Room affords many delightful Prospects, being built in the Center of several Gardens, and within Sight of Ashley River, which in Summer Time constantly affords a cool refreshing Breeze.

That such a Situation promotes Health, and makes Study more agreeable, are Facts too evident to need much Expatiation.

Mr. STRATON therefore most respectfully waits on his Friends and the Publick, with Tenders of his best Services, humbly hoping those that like his Method of bringing Youth forward in their Learning, will continue to encourage him.

He teaches to read distinctly, write correctly, and cypher accurately, with all possible Dispatch.

N.B. He keeps an EVENING SCHOOL, to qualify young Gentlemen for Business, from the Merchant to the Mechanick; causes his Scholars to write a fine Hand in a short Time, and then makes them acquainted with Merchants and other Accounts; with some curious Branches of the Mathematicks, and the Beauties of Algebra.

A few Day-Boarders may be accommodated in a genteel Manner, on the usual Terms.
